Every person owning or operating a commercial kennel shall pay to the City poundmaster an annual license fee of ten dollars for such kennel, which shall be the license fee for all dogs regularly kept therein. Such license fee shall be due and payable on the first day of January of each year, and said license shall be for the period of one year commencing on the first day of January. Any owner or operator of a kennel failing to procure and pay for such kennel license after the first day of March of any year shall pay an additional ten dollars as a penalty for such delinquency. (Ord. 4112 § 1 (part), 1974)

Section 8.18.020 Construction of commercial kennels.

All kennels shall be so constructed as to prevent dogs confined therein from running at large off the premises where said kennels are maintained. All kennels shall be operated and constructed in a sanitary and proper manner so the same will not become a nuisance to the neighborhood in which such kennel is located. (Ord. 4112 § 1 (part), 1974)
